

Acknowledgements	vii
------------------------	-----

Introduction	1
The Problem of Abolition
Amar Wahab and Cecily Jones

Part I: The Boundaries of Slavery and Freedom

Chapter One.....	19
Emancipation and ‘Military Necessity’ during the Haitian Revolution: Challenging the Hegemonic Paradigms of Slavery and Freedom
Claudius Fergus

Chapter Two	39
Imagining Difference: Abolition and Mixed Race in the British Atlantic
Daniel Livesay

Part II: Contesting and Championing Freedom

Chapter Three	61
Jane Harry Thresher and Mary Morris Knowles Speak Out for Liberty in Jamaica and England
Judith Jennings

Chapter Four	85
A Moral and Benevolent Mistress? Gender, Race and Abolitionism in Jamaica
Sasha Turner

Chapter Five	115
Anti-Slave Trade Propaganda in 1788: The African’s Complaint in Contrast to Britain’s Vision of Liberty
Ulrich Pallua

Part III: The Legacies of Slavery and Abolition

Chapter Six	135
Silences that Create Absences: Ayi Kwei Armah's Fragments Georgia Axiotou
Chapter Seven.....	151
Reflections on the Paradoxes of Remembrance and Commemoration of the 1807 Abolition Bill Angela Michele Leonard
Notes.....	167
Contributors	193
Index.....	197